Voir annexe

Léa and Tim have invented a board game. To decide how many squares a token will move they are going to use a dice with 8 faces. They make the dice using the net given in the annexe.

They put the whole numbers between 1 and 8 on the dice.

The sum of the numbers on two opposite faces is 9.

Complete the net of the dice.