

Question 3: Fishes

Jenny buys 20 fish for her aquarium: they are coloured blue, red or green.

For each different colour she chooses a different number of fish. If there are at least twice as many fish in one colour group as there are in a different colour group then the big group will attack the small group.

Jenny needs to make sure that does not happen.

Write down a possible method of stocking the aquarium.